EXPERIENCED CONFERENCE TEAM!

Spectronics has hosted this ILT conference since 2004. Definitely NOT a commercial product show. It's an event focused on successful use of technologies with students – using practical evidence-based strategies.

Spectronics conference 2006 changed my teaching practices and now 2008 / 2010 has revolutionized my classroom. This is because topics are relevant & research based. Practical application in the classroom can start the day you return. For this, I thank you.
